

7521825006.txt

Net neutrality is vital to the flow of information on the internet. Allowing huge corporations to decide which sites have unrestricted access and which sites do not is beyond the pale. Don't these corporations have enough power as it is? This is how our news programs have become so horrible. Corporations have turned them into money making ventures. This is what they will do to the internet as well if we allow them. Do not let companies charge internet sites for faster internet speeds!