

7521825338.txt

I strongly oppose prioritizing/monitoring certain content providers over the internet versus all others. The ISP should not have the right to restrict or limit access to certain features. I do support regulating ISPs under Title II regulatory guidelines, just as telephone and cable companies are regulated.