

Wilson Petition

I support Wilson, North Carolina's petition for the FCC to override the stupid North Carolina law that will not allow them to expand their high speed internet service. The United State is greatly behind other countries in high speed Internet service because most Internet carriers are dragging their feet when it comes to high speed Internet. This country was founded on competition and granting Wilson's petition supports competition.