

7521825721.txt

I demand that we keep net neutrality rules remain as they have stood since 1996! The internet has become a vital part of our democratic processes, so it is critical that it not fall under the control of large moneyed entities. And a monopoly of Time Warner and Comcast will lead to the legal extortion of the majority of small businesses online.