

7521826238.txt

Why would you give people who have the money they can possible want and give them all the internet they want to just cause they can't wait for a video to load for 10 seconds it doesn't make sense and it's not right for people like me and other out there i can hardly pay for my bill and now the internet is gonna turn crap just so that rich people can get the best wifi available no that's not right