

7521826285.txt

We depend on RFD TV for entertainment and educational programming that isn't available from any other source. It's wholesome presentations are welcomed into our home and would be sorely missed. I am against any action by the FCC that would interrupt our ability to continue enjoying RFD TV.