

7521826937.txt

This harms consumers and the availability of information. The only group this benefits are cable companies, who already hold ridiculous monopoly in areas. I fully support Net Neutrality, do not pass rules which would allow companies to discriminate and decide which content gets to be seen by US citizens.