

7521827475.txt

I am an Interpreter in private practice. I am required, due to interoperability issues, to have two types of Video telephones for consumers to contact me for interpreting services. Hearing interpreters do not need two phones to accept job offers.

This is an unnecessary burden for all of us, and the issue of interoperability needs to cease immediately.

Please simplify our lives, NOW.