

7521827697.txt

I think that the matters discussed in MB Docket No. 14-127 are critical to making public secret or hidden donations to political action groups by corporate entities, which are increasingly disruptive to and destructive of our traditional democratic processes in this country. I support the measures of increased public online disclosure of political advertising sources.