

7521827864.txt

I support net neutrality! Allowing ISPs to charge premium rates for certain content is antithetical to the nature of free and open information, and will create a barrier to entry for many tech startups that could create immense value for our country. Please do not allow this to happen.