

7521828561.txt

The internet belongs to us all, wealthy companies should not be able to receive preferential treatment regarding web traffic. I run a small business there is no way I could afford additional fees to serve up my website.