

7521828778.txt

It is important to maintain net neutrality. Two speeds of service would allow cable companies to extort small internet companies for money. Comcast slowing down Netflix during negotiation proves what would happen without regulation. Cable companies have become monopolies. I am forced to have TWC because there are no competitors for high speed internet in my area. The internet in its current form is not broken Mr. Wheeler.