

7521831917.txt

I want internet service providers classified as common carriers. They should not have control over how the data I pay for them to deliver to me is classified. Every packet should be considered equal no matter where it comes from.