

7521835464.txt

As major Internet carriers consolidate to monopolize the industry the public is being systematically blocked from the unfettered use of a program that was originally funded by taxpayer dollars. To serve the people the internet must remain neutral! Do not allow manipulation of FCC regulations for the purpose of increasing their control over a public service.