

7521866027.txt

Direct TV has been an excellent provider of television programming, I feel programming would suffer drastically if this merger were allowed. These two are competitors in lots of other ways so combining them would limit consumers choice.