

FCC,

My name is Adam B. and I have concerns regarding the proposed Comcast/TWC merger. These companies already possess monopolies and allowing them to merge is an affront to this country's capitalistic spirit. These companies already possess an iron grip on telecom in their areas (despite horrific customer service), and make it impossible for new companies to enter the market. Please preserve Net Neutrality and oppose this merger.

-Adam B.