Keep that shit free, you corrupt cunts. America was built on limited regulation, getting out of taxes, and all around great fun and fuckery, and now we have you bastards. I'd rather go back to sucking King George's balls, and cleaning his taint, than dealing with the ridiculous shit from you guys, creating more regulation. I'm not bashing one party, and just as all men are created equal, I hate you all equally. Let me repeat, you corrupt cunts, do not touch or fuck the internet without consent.
