

7522017118.txt

I want internet providers listed as common carriers. I want net neutrality. I want the internet to be for all people, not just a way for major corporations to make a higher profit at the expense of something that was intended to be for all of humanity.

I want the opposite of this!