

7522091814.txt

Please do not allow different internet speeds based on purchasing power .it's so ridiculously a money-grab by the cable and telecommunications companies. there is no benefit to the average consumer of course. Another example of corruption in our society. seems to never end.