

7522254852.txt

I want internet service providers to be classified as common carriers.

I am a local business owner in Brooklyn, NY - if the internet slows down my business will very hard to locate online - given that all marketing efforts are completed via online service this will effectively destroy my business. Not only is my business providing health care to the local community we live/work in, but we also employ people in the local community.