

Dear FCC:

We need net neutrality for many different reasons. But one of the biggest is the fact almost all of the youths here in America use the internet as a means of escape and to vent their problems.

Without net neutrality most of the sites they would use would be heavily affected, which would only stress them out even more. Please keep net neutrality.