

7522442483.txt

As a resident of a county adjacent to the Chattanooga EPB service area, I support the proposal to allow the EPB to expand its broadband service area. At present, the internet speeds available in my area are very limited and do not come close to approaching the speeds offered by EPB. I fail to see why the desires of a few giant national internet service providers like ATT and Charter should override the freedom of a local provider like EPB to provide a competitive service to my area.