

7522678792.txt

Please leave the Internet open to all without the implementation of fast lanes. Small business owners would be hurt and this would stifle growth of new business. In this country where we have outsourced so much and the dream of opening a business is as difficult as it is why another roadblock? Fast lanes only help giant corporations and further cause them to not want to improve service or compete. Help real Americans please.