Dear FCC,

My name is Marissa Raguet and I live in New Hope, MN.

Net neutrality, the principle that Internet service providers (ISPs) treat all data that travels over their networks equally, is important to me because without it users may have fewer options and a less diverse Internet.

A pay-to-play Internet worries me because ISPs could act as the gatekeepers to their subscribers.

The Internet is important to me because as a sexual violence prevention coordinator, I need to know that there will not be barriers to entry for the new ideas and services that people bring to the internet to combat sexual violence.

Sincerely,

Marissa Raguet
