Dear FCC,

My name is Cassie Clawson and I live in Palmyra, VA.

Net neutrality, the principle that Internet service providers (ISPs) treat all data that travels over their networks equally, is important to me because without it users may have fewer options and a less diverse Internet.

A pay-to-play Internet worries me because ISPs could act as the gatekeepers to their subscribers.

This is a very important time in history. Don't make the wrong choice. The people want net neutrality. Give the people what they (we) want and deserve. The big corporations don't need any more help in their monopolies.

Sincerely,

Cassie Clawson
