Point 1: Who designed this section of the website? Because it looks atrocious.

Point 2: YOU are the Federal Communications Commission. YOU are supposed to be the branch of government that tells the cable companies, such as Comcast and Time Warner (which both suck by the way), what they can and cannot do on behalf of the PEOPLE.

Well the PEOPLE have spoken, and we will not stand for Net Neutrality to be taken away. Have some INTEGRITY. For once, be the side of government that stands up for what's RIGHT.
