

7522891025.txt

The internet should be open and free. These bills you keep trying to pass are oppressive and wrong. they're a sign that people are buying the sway of the government and go against the United States of America's founding values.