Re: Protecting and Promoting the Open Internet, GN Docket No. 14-28

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Friday, September 19, 2014, the Enforcement Bureau of the Federal Communications Commission hosted the third in a series of staff-led Open Internet Roundtable Discussions entitled "Effective Enforcement of Open Internet Requirements."¹ On the same day, the Commission's Office of Strategic Planning and Policy Analysis hosted the "Technological Aspects of an Open Internet" Open Internet Roundtable. The purpose of these roundtables was for Commission staff and interested parties to further examine the actions the Commission should take toward its goal of protecting and promoting Internet openness.

With this letter, the related video recordings available online at <http://www.fcc.gov/events/open-internet-roundtable-enforcement> and <http://www.fcc.gov/events/open-internet-roundtable-technological-aspects> are submitted into the docket for the above-captioned proceeding.

Respectfully Submitted,
