

7522908642.txt

The intrusion of the FCC is an outrage. The whole purpose of net neutrality is that all sites are created equal. If I am paying for a service like Netflix, what right has the ISP to slow down the service I am paying them for? Quit passing regulations to hold information hostage from the masses.